

STORIA

CERTIFICATIONS

All products that have been tested according to the methods described by the French Decree n° 2011-321, have achieved the emission class A+, the most restrictive concerning the emissions of volatile substances.

Materials Inc's products comply with the most restrictive Californian standards of the specification 01350 concerning the emissions of volatile substances (VOC).

LEED® is a certification system for the design, construction and management of sustainable buildings and high-performance areas. Materials Inc products contribute to the acquisition of credits for this certification.

CARB

All the plywood used meets the requirements set by the CARB Phase 2 standard for Formaldehyde emission.

The certificates issued by the Japanese Ministry are considered the highest level of environmental and health standards. floors have obtained this certification proving to have the lowest levels of formaldehyde emission.

The Materials Inc products have been tested according to the UNI-ENV 12633: 2003 standard that determines the value of slip resistance, and has reached the highest class, making the products suitable for installation even in external or wet environments, such as kitchens, bathrooms, swimming pools, etc.